Dear Sir or Madam:

The Rutherford Chapter of UNICO National is now accepting applications for the local Chapter's scholarship. The Chapter will award its locally sponsored scholarship to a high school senior who is a resident of Rutherford. Applications and detailed information including eligibility and submission deadlines are available in the guidance offices at Rutherford High School and St. Mary High School or by contacting Rutherford UNICO Scholarship Chairman, Salvatore Brancato at 973-471-5912.

A number of other scholarships are being awarded by UNICO National. These scholarship applications can be obtained only by accessing the UNICO National Website at: www.unico.org and tab to the scholarship page. A listing of these scholarships includes:

Major Don Gentile Scholarship, William Davini Scholarship, Alphonse A. Miele Scholarship and the Theodore Mazza Scholarship- all to eligible high school seniors.

In addition to the aforementioned scholarships, UNICO National will award scholarships to college seniors who will soon be embarking on graduate level studies. Interested applicants must also access the UNICO National Website to obtain these applications. These scholarships include:

Sgt. John Basilone Scholarship, Dr. Benjamin Cottone Scholarship, The Bernard and Carolyn Torraco Memorial Nursing Scholarship, The Ella T. Grasso Literary Scholarship and the DiMattio-Celli Study Abroad Scholarship, Guglielmo Marconi Engineering Scholarship, Ralph Torraco Scholarship, Louise Torraco Memorial Scholarship for Science, Ralph J. Torraco Fine Arts Scholarship, Maria and Paolo Alessio Scholarship and the Inserra Scholarships. The website will give a full description of additional UNICO Scholarships also.

UNICO National is the largest Italian-American service organization in the United States with chapters throughout the country.

Yours truly
